Letter Of Invitation From The President

The first second and third Academic Congress of International Chinese Neurosurgical Sciences have already been held in Boao, Chongqing and Guangzhou. On the occasion, there were many scholars coming from all over the world. It provided a good chance to enhance friendships and increase understanding among the attendants. This meeting created an academic communication in the neurosurgical theory and technique.

In order to encourage solidification among the Chinese neurosurgical scholars and make great progress in the world and internal neurosurgical society, International Chinese Federation of Neurosurgical Sciences decide that the 4th Academic Congress of International Chinese Neurosurgical Sciences will be held in Chengdu on June, 2010.

As the sponsor and organizer of this conference, I am very honoured and delighted to represent the International Chinese Federation of Neurosurgical Sciences and the Chinese Medical Doctor Association of Neurosurgical Branch as well as the organizing committee of this conference to welcome you and your colleagues to participate in this conference. At that time we will invite very famous neurosurgical domestic and foreign specialists to give the excellent presentations.

Finally, the scenery of Chengdu is attractive in June. We will offer you comfortable condition for your learning and communication. The 4th Academic Congress of International Chinese Neurosurgical Sciences welcomes your visit.
